

Being a Humanitarian in a Modern Context - from Backpacker to Expatriate

Sydney University Red Cross Society @ Humanitarian Week

SURCS joins Sydney Uni's Social Justice Clubs & Societies in a week-long festival of events encouraging students to 'be the change'

We will hear from young humanitarian Prashanth Shanmugan, a former Australian Red Cross International Humanitarian Law (IHL) Community Speaker. He will give an overview of IHL and volunteerism and how these concepts helped him to get a better understanding of global issues and opportunities. Prashanth will also speak about his experiences at uni and overseas, and what he is doing in order to carve out a globally minded career informed by humanitarianism.

Join us for an interactive event led by Prashanth Shanmugan, a geopolitical strategist, writer, and Humanitarian

Date: Monday 16 August
Time: 2 - 4pm
Venue: Isabel Fidler Room,
Top Level Manning House,
University of Sydney

Search "Humanitarian Week, 16-19 August 2010" on Facebook for a full run-down of all the week's fantastic events helping you to 'be the change' you want to see in the world.